

Financial Aid Code of Conduct

The United States' Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) requires educational institutions participating in the U.S. Direct Loan Program to develop and comply with a code of conduct that prohibits conflicts of interest for financial aid personnel (HEOA 487 (a)(25)). As a participating institution, The Medical University of Lublin has a Financial Aid Code of Conduct bringing Medical University of Silesia into compliance with the federal law HWEOA 487 (e). Any Medical University of Silesia officer, employee, or agent who has responsibilities with respect to our U.S. students educational loans must comply with this code of conduct.

1. The Medical University of Silesia ("the University") as an institution or any individual officer, employee or agent shall enter into any revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender. A revenue-sharing arrangement means an arrangement between the University and a lender under which the lender provides or issues loans to students attending the University or to the families of such students; and the University recommends the lender or the loan products of the lender and in exchange, the lender pays a fee or provides other material benefits, including revenue or profit sharing, to the University or its agent.
2. No officer or employee of the University who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has responsibilities with respect to education loans, or any of their family members, shall solicit or accept any gift from a lender, guarantor, or servicer of education loans. For purposes of this prohibition, the term "gift means any gratuity, favor, discount, entertainment, hospitality, loan, or other item having a monetary value of more than a de minimums amount.
3. An officer or employee of the University who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has responsibilities with respect to education loans, or an agent who has responsibilities with respect to education loans, shall not accept from any lender or affiliate of any lender any fee, payment, or other financial benefit (including the opportunity to purchase stock) as compensation for any type of consulting arrangement or other contract to provide services to a lender or on behalf of a lender relating to education loans.
4. The University shall not: for any first-time borrower, assign, through award packaging or other methods, the borrower's loan to a particular lender; or refuse to certify, or delay certification of, any loan based on the borrower's selection of a particular lender or guaranty agency.
5. Medical University of Silesia shall not request or accept from any lender any offer of funds to be used for private education loans (non-Title IV loans), including funds for an opportunity pool loan, to students in exchange for the institution providing concessions or promises regarding providing the lender with: a specific number of loans made, insured, or guaranteed under Title IV; b. a specified loan volume of such loans; or c. a preferred lender arrangement for such loans.
6. Medical University of Silesia shall not request or accept from any lender any assistance with the call center staffing or financial aid office staffing.
7. Any employee who is employed in the financial aid office, or who otherwise has responsibilities with respect to education loans or other student financial aid, and who serves on an advisory board, commission, or group established by a lender, guarantor or group of lenders or guarantors, shall be prohibited from receiving anything of value from the lender, guarantor, or group of lenders or guarantors, except that the employee may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in serving on such advisory board, commission, or group.
