3. The Visitor's Book will be kept by the company providing the building's security and the data of the visitor will be recorded on the basis of the requirement indicated in § 6 of the Regulation of the Council of Ministers of 19.12.2013 on the detailed mode of action of security personnel.
4. The Head of Student Dormitory or an employee of the Student Dormitory administration authorised by him/her may agree to the accommodation of the visitor in the resident's room.
5. If a visitor requests permission to stay overnight outside the working hours of the Student Dormitory administration, permission may be granted by the Head of the Residents' Board or his/her Deputy.
6. Visitor can obtain permission for an overnight stay from the persons indicated in section 4 or 5 only after the roommates give their own permission.
7. Persons indicated in section 4 and 5 are obliged to provide the security officer, respectively, by 10 p.m., with a list of persons who have been granted permission to stay in a resident's room.
8. The consent for the accommodation of a visitor, including students residing in Student Dormitory in other locations, may be granted no more than 5 times a month for one room.
9. The Head of the Student Dormitory is obliged to keep the register of given permissions. The register must contain:
  - 1) surname and name of a visitor,
  - 2) type and number of ID,
  - 3) surname and family name of a room resident, who puts up a visitor,
  - 4) date of an overnight stay of a visitor.
10. The fee for an overnight stay of a visitor is paid as soon as possible by the resident receiving a visitor, the fees defined by the Rector's regulation with restriction regarding students referred to in point 8 where no fee is taken. The receipt confirming the payment should be attached to the accommodation form, annex no. 1a to these Regulations.
11. Apart from the number of overnight stays defined in point 8, the resident's visitors may stay overnight in the vacant rooms, fees defined by the Rector's regulation.
12. Student Dormitory resident takes all material responsibility for any damages made by his/her visitors.

13. Visitors under influence of alcohol or drugs shall not have the right to access Student Dormitory.
14. Persons under age without legal representatives shall not have the right to access the Student Dormitory.
15. The Head of the Student Dormitory has the right to restrict visits in justified cases and to ban outsiders from entering the dormitory area.
16. Residents of the Student Dormitory inviting a visitor to stay overnight are obliged to complete the accommodation form, which is attached as Annex 1 to these Regulations.

VII. Vacant rooms

§ 14

1. The vacant rooms not rented by the students may be used for the purpose of short-time accommodation for individual guests or organised groups, as the so-called guest rooms, in accordance with the price list in Annex No. 3 to this Resolution.
2. Bookings of the vacant rooms are made at the Head of the Student Dormitory.
3. Accommodation in a vacant room starts at 14:00 and ends at 12:00 the following day.
4. Persons using vacant rooms are financially liable for damage and deficiencies in the equipment listed in the room equipment card, resulting from their accommodation.
5. The period of accommodation in a vacant room is from one day to a maximum of 4 weeks with the possibility of extending it for another period depending on room availability.
6. During the holiday period the Student Dormitories may be used as hotel facilities, as per the price list in Annex No.3 to these Resolution.
7. A person applying for short-time accommodation shall sign the form from Annex No. 1b to these Resolution.

VIII. Rules for payment of a seat/room charges in Student Dormitory

§ 15

1. The amount of payments for a seat/room in the Student Dormitory is defined by the price list, attached as Annex No. 2 to these Regulations, however in the case of a seat/room in the academic year 2020/2021 and onwards, until the epidemic in the territory of the Republic of Poland is recalled, it is attached as Annex No. 4 to these Regulations.
2. Students - Polish citizens and foreigners studying in Polish bring fees by the 10th of each calendar month, for the current month in advance.

3. Students - foreigners studying in English bring fees under the following rules:
  - 1) the fee is the product of the number of calendar months and the amount of the fee for a seat in the assigned room:
    - a) for the months from October to February - by October 1 of each year,
    - b) for the months from March to June - by March 1 of each year.
  - 2) The fee for the stay at the student dormitory during the summer holidays is payable no later than the day the holidays begin.
4. The seat/room fees are paid to the bank account assigned individually to each student. The individual bank account number is available in the Virtual Dean's Office.
5. When staying at the Student Dormitory, the student is obliged to pay a one-time deposit, which is a financial guarantee in case of arrears in fees or damage made in the dormitory, in the amount of one monthly fee per assigned room, paid together with the first fee, by transfer to the bank account indicated by the University or at the cash desk of the University.
6. The deposit will be settled upon the student's written request after the check-out. The settlement will take into account the damage caused by the student both in the room he or she occupies and in the common parts of the Student Dormitory.
7. Student accommodated on a date other than that specified in the Regulations pays the fees for a place in the assigned room on the day of accommodation, in the amount of:
  - a)  $\frac{1}{2}$  the rate of the monthly fee for accommodation up to 15 days in a given calendar month, subject to § 5 section 3,
  - b) the full rate of the monthly fee when the accommodation exceeds 16 days in a given calendar month.
8. In the case of resignation from residence in the dormitory within the time limit in accordance with § 5 sec. 2, at the student's request, a proportional refund of the fee may be made at the student's request, on the terms set out in section 7.
9. Any overpayment from the dormitory fees shall be refunded after final check-out, at the written request of the student, giving an indication of the method of refunding the fee (at the cash desk of the University or to the given bank account, including its number, bank name and Swift code). The bank and administrative costs of the return shall be borne by the student and it is the student's responsibility to make sure that the data provided is correct.
10. Students of the SUM staying in vacant rooms pay a one-day fee of  $\frac{1}{30}$ th of the monthly fee for a place in a vacant room, determined by the price list constituting Annex 3 to these Regulations.
11. Fees for vacant rooms are paid by bank transfer to the bank account indicated by the University or at the University's cash desk before the room is made available, upon presentation of the payment receipt.
12. On the fees for a seat in Student Dormitory paid after the due date, statutory interest will be charged in accordance with Art. 481 § 1 and 2 of the Civil Code (i.e. Journal of Laws of 2020, item 1740).
13. Students of the SUM who fail to pay for a seat/room in Student Dormitory on time are deprived of access to the SUM-Net until the fees are settled.

IX. Final provisions

§ 16

1. In matters not regulated by these Regulations, decisions are made by the Rector or the Vice- Rector for Studies and Students, and in their absence, another Vice-Rector acting under the authority of the Rector.
2. Each resident is obliged to acquaint himself/herself with the provisions of these Regulations and confirm this with his/her own signature.
3. Any disputes that may arise in connection with the application of the provisions of these Regulations shall be settled in accordance with Polish law, before a court having jurisdiction over the seat of the University.
4. The present regulations enter into force on the day of signing.
